

FITCHBURG REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

FRA donates $50K to OWL Campaign

Donation represents agency's goals of modernization, expansion

The Fitchburg Redevelopment Authority donation will assist in the OWL Capital Campaign's goal to raise funds for Fitchburg library renovations. From left, Library Board of Trustees Chair Matt Bruun, OWL Campaign Co-Chair Rob Favini, Fitchburg Public Library Director Deb Hinkle, Chair of the FRA Board Charles Caron, OWL Capital Campaign Co-Chair Sharon Bernard, FRA Board member Laura O'Kane, and FRA Executive Director Meagen Donoghue. (

FITCHBURG >> The Fitchburg Redevelopment Authority (FRA) has reaffirmed its commitment to the community's educational and cultural enrichment by donating $50,000 to the Fitchburg Public Library's OWL Capital Campaign.

The OWL (Offering a World of Learning) Capital Campaign is a visionary initiative to enhance the facilities and services of the Fitchburg Public Library and has garnered significant support from various community partners within the city. The FRA's contribution further underscores its dedication to fostering growth, accessibility and innovation in the heart of Fitchburg.

"Libraries are integral community resources that empower individuals, promote lifelong learning, and foster a sense of unity," said Meagen Donoghue, executive director of the FRA. "We believe that by investing in the expansion and modernization of the Fitchburg Public Library, we are investing in the future of our city."FRA » Page 8

The FRA is an independent economic development agency for the city of Fitchburg. A quasi-public agency created almost 60 years ago, the FRA is responsible for urban renewal planning, land acquisition, business relocation, demolition of obsolete structures, and public improvements within the Urban Renewal District of Fitchburg.