

Fidelity Bank pledges $40K to Fitchburg Public Library renovation project

FITCHBURG >> Fidelity Bank recently pledged $40,000 to the Fitchburg Public Library Offering a World of Learning (OWL) Capital Campaign, supporting the renovation of the existing Wallace Library, which will include a new children's library to replace the previous youth library.

The OWL Capital Campaign is an initiative meant to support the enhancement of the facilities of the library's main building, located at 610 Main Street in Fitchburg. The construction is currently underway and expected to be completed in 2026.

"We are grateful to Fidelity Bank for the generous support of our renovation and expansion project as we work to offer a world of learning for our community in a state-of-the-art facility," said Deb Hinkle, executive director, Fitchburg Public Library. "With their commitment, we can give our community the opportunity to learn, connect and explore in a creative and innovative space."

To learn more about the library renovation and expansion project, visit <https://www.fitchburgma.gov/1028/Building-Project>.

"As a community bank, we're proud to help preserve the stories and values the Fitchburg Public Library has shaped to inspire generations to come," said Towma Rastad, community engagement manager, Fidelity Bank.

— Fidelity Bank